What is Wrong with Denominational Baptism? - Part 2

Denominational Baptism is Wrong Because . . .

IT HAS THE WRONG CONFESSION

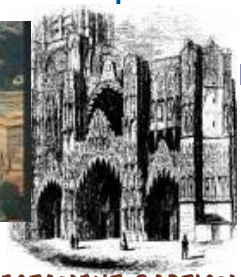
- The denominational confession, "God for Christ's sake has pardoned my sins" prior to baptism, is unscriptural.
- Beleiving one's sins have been forgiven before the blood of Christ is reached (in Biblical baptism) is wrong.

THE BIBLE TEACHES . . .

The proper confession to precede baptism is, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."

- Acts 8:35-38

Baptism is to save, but it does not save apart from the blood of Christ. Mark 16:16 • 1 Peter 3:21



Denominational Baptism is Wrong Because . . .

IT HAS THE WRONG PURPOSE

- When one disavows any connection between baptism and salvation, what he then submits to is NOT Bible baptism.

THE BIBLE TEACHES . . .

SCRIPTURAL BAPTISM:

- SAVES
  - Mark 16:16
  - 1 Peter 3:21
- REMITS SINS
  - Acts 2:38
- WASHES AWAY SINS
  - Acts 22:16
- IS COMMANDED
  - Matthew 28:19-20

"But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted."
Matthew 15:13
