He said that although the ship would be lost, all lives would be spared. Acts 27:21-26 – "But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, 'Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss.
 22 And now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.
 23 For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve,
 24 saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.
 25 Therefore take heart, men, for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me.
 26 However, we must run aground on a certain island.'"
2. Paul had warned them at Crete not to sail. Acts 27:21
3. An angel of the Lord had informed Paul as to what would occur. Acts 27:23
