

Lessons & Observations from Acts 24

---

1. Merely trembling at the gospel is not obedience to the gospel.
2. For so many the “convenient season” never comes.
3. It is folly and dangerous for a person to wait for a convenient seas to do what should be done immediately.
4. Obedience should be out of conviction rather than convenience.
5. Bribery and political corruption still exist today.
6. The innocent sometimes suffer.
7. Evil-minded people will also speak evil of a Christian.
8. Trying to please others may complicate matters. Acts 24:24
9. Every false charge can and should be answered by a simple recitation of the facts.
10. Listening to the gospel is both fine and necessary, but obedience must take place in order for there to be salvation
11. Knowledge of the truth without obedience to the truth will not bring salvation. Acts 24:22
12. Flattery may be give with ulterior motives.
13. How sad that many follow a “religion” rather than the Christ.
14. Many lack the moral strength and courage to do what is right.
15. A refusal to obey is an acceptance of disobedience.
16. A Christian’s defense should always be a truthful defense.
17. Many people will be willing to discuss the “good news’ with you as long as it doesn’t touch their lives too personally.
18. The Good News is about God’s power to change lives for both now and eternity.
19. If you are to offer someone a compliment, make sure it is sincere.
20. Faithfully be a part of “the Way” (Christianity) that follows “the Way” (Christ) of John 14:6.
