

Lessons & Observations from Acts 25

1. One's rights are important and should not be abused.
2. Changing leaders does not change truth.
3. Even religious leaders can exhibit dishonesty at times.
4. In matters of dispute, all truth should be brought forward.
5. Trying to please all the people all the time is impossibility.
6. The world tries to silence God's messengers.
7. Lying is a serious offense in the sight of God. Revelation 21:8
8. Not all will stand before the courts of men, but all will stand before the court of Heaven. Romans 14:10-12 – “. . . For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
11 For it is written: "As I live, says the LORD, Every knee shall bow to Me, And every tongue shall confess to God."
12 So then each of us shall give account of himself to God.
9. Know your rights.
10. World pomp adds nothing to truth.
11. God can thwart evil schemes.
12. The good reputation and clear conscience that result from our walk with God can help us remain guiltless before god and blameless before the world.
13. The resurrection of Christ is central to a Christian's belief.
14. Rather than complain about your present situation, look for ways to use every opportunity to serve God and share Him with others.
15. One's problems may be opportunities in disguise.
