

Lessons & Observations from Acts 28

---

1. People should be kind and Helpful.
2. Kindness should be returned in kind.
3. Even when life's circumstances appear to limit us, we must press on to do what we can for the Lord in spite of them.
4. Brethren should be supportive and helpful to fellow brethren.
5. There are people who sincerely want to know what you think of Christ.
6. You can teach those who come to visit you.
7. Christ can, and will, bring us through hard times.
8. Those who have power over us have One who has power over them.
9. The gospel is to be preached to all races and nationalities.
10. When the gospel is taught, some will believe, and some will not.
11. Sometimes Christians may feel marooned, but they are not doomed.
Romans 8:28 – “we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.”
12. God can use the Christian's trials and tribulations to reach others for Christ.
13. Even in the face of superstition and heathenism, there is a place for the power of the gospel.
14. May people grasp at anything but God.
15. God will help the Christian with physical necessities.
16. Christians need to remember that when they are down, God is still up.
17. God's messenger may be “snake-bitten”, but not the message.
18. Christians need to be active in the community where they are.
19. God has promised us safe passage to Heaven.
20. As a Christian, your life is in God's hand.
21. God still has work for you to do.
22. Even though in chains, God's message is not bound.
23. Christians are committed to an authority higher than the governments of men.
24. Be appreciative for the hospitality and kindness of others.
25. We need both physical food and spiritual food.
