

Illegalities that Surrounded Christ - Part 2

2. THE INDICTMENT AGAINST JESUS WAS, IN FORM, ILLEGAL.

- a. The accusation (indictment) at the trial was both vague and indefinite.
- b. The accusation was made, in part, by Caiphas, the high priest, who was one of the judges of Jesus. Hebrew law allowed none but the leading witnesses to present the charge.

3. THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE SANHEDRIN AGAINST JESUS WERE ILLEGAL IN THAT THEY WERE CONDUCTED AT NIGHT.

- a. Hebrew jurisprudence strictly forbade the trial of a capital offense case at night.
- b. A court had no jurisdiction if it convened and acted at a time forbidden by law.
