

Statements About the Holy Spirit

- According to many Theologians:

1. The 18th century placed great emphasis on the study of God as the Father.
2. The 19th century placed great emphasis on the study of Christ.
3. The 20th century placed great emphasis on the study of the Holy Spirit

- When studying about the Holy Spirit, or any other Bible subject, “When you run out of text, you run out of authority.”

- Every thing we know or can know about the Holy Spirit comes from the Bible.

- The Bible is a product of the Holy Spirit.

- John 14:26

- John 15:26

- John 16:13-14

} Eleven times in these three passages the personal pronoun, masculine gender and singular number is used in reference to the Holy Spirit. He is a person!

- With the exception of the books of Philemon, 2 John, and 3 John, the Holy Spirit appears in every book of the New Testament, and more frequently in the writings of Paul than in all of the Old Testament together.

