

Joseph's Relationship with Egypt

He was sold into slavery and taken into Egypt.

- Genesis 37:28
- Genesis 39:1

Joseph
Entered Egypt at age 17
Became a ruler at age 30
Governed Egypt for 80 years
Lived in Egypt some 93 years

He died at the age of 110, was embalmed, put in a coffin, and buried in Canaan 400 years later. ■ Genesis 50:22-26

He was falsely accused by Potiphar's wife and sentenced to prison.

- Genesis 37:28
- Genesis 39:1

He was able to see God's hand of sovereignty in Egypt

- Genesis 50:50

He was given the ability to interpret the dream of Pharaoh.

- Genesis 41:8
- Genesis 41:14-16

He was able to start his own family in Egypt: a wife and two children .

- Genesis 46:20

He was made ruler over Egypt, second only to Pharaoh.

- Genesis 41:33-34
- Genesis 41:41
- Genesis 41:43-46

He was able to plan for the famine that was to come, saving Egypt and the surrounding nations.

- Genesis 41:53-42:3

He was able to save and reunite his family.

- Genesis 43:2
- Genesis 45:4
- Genesis 45:8-9, 18-20

