

Great Statements About the Bible - Part 3

“The Bible is no mere book, but a living Creature with a power the conquers all that oppose it.”

 Napoleon

“The whole hope of human progress is suspended on the ever-growing influence of the Bible.”

 W. H. Seward

“So great is my veneration for the Bible that the earlier my children begin to read it the more confident will be my hope that they will prove useful citizens of their country and respectable members of society. I have for many years made it a practice to read through the Bible once every  year.”

John Quincy Adams

“The Bible is the sheet-anchor of our liberties.”

 Ulysses S. Grant

“Bible reading is an education in itself.”

 Alfred Lord Tennyson

“I thoroughly believe in a university education; but I believe a knowledge of the Bible without a college education is more valuable than a college course without the Bible.”

Rousseau

“There are more sure marks of authenticity in the Bible than in any profane history.”

 Sir Issac Newton

“All human discoveries seem to be made only for the purpose of confirming more and more strongly the truths contained in the sacred Scriptures.”

 Sir William Herschel
