

Some “Don’ts” of Bible Study

-  DON'T approach the Bible irrelevantly
-  DON'T force an interpretation that isn't present in the text
-  DON'T interpret one verse so as to contradict another plain passage
-  DON'T twist the Scriptures so as to support a preconceived idea
-  DON'T ignore the fact that there are some difficult passages in the Bible
-  DON'T take a text out of context
-  DON'T use translations that are unreliable
-  DON'T fail to study all other passages on the subject you are studying
-  DON'T hesitate to use good Bible study helps
-  DON'T forget to ask God to help you understand what you are studying
-  DON'T take what people say over what the Bible says
-  DON'T ever give up studying the Word of God
