

Organization of David's Kingdom - Part 3

➔ King David was a great administrator, establishing a detailed structure of roles and responsibilities for maintaining the kingdom

OVERSEERS

1 Chronicles 27:25-31

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| Azmaveth | In charge of the royal storehouses |
| Jehonathan | In charge of storehouses outside Jerusalem, and the watchtowers |
| Ezri | In charge of field workers |
| Shimei | In charge of the vineyards |
| Zabdi | In charge of the grapes to make wine |
| Baal-Hanan | In charge of the olive and sycamore trees |
| Joash | In charge of the olive oil |
| Shitra, Shaphat | In charge of the herds |
| Obil | In charge of the cattle |
| Jehdeiah | In charge of the donkeys |
| Jahziz | In charge of the flocks |

OTHER ADVISORS

1 Chronicles 27:32-34

| | |
|------------|------------------------------|
| Jehonathan | Counselor and scribe |
| Jehiel | Took care of the king's sons |
| Ahithophel | Counselor |
| Hushai | Friend to the king |
| Jehoiada | Counselor |
| Joab | Commander of the army |