

Great Statements About the Bible - Part 1

“The Bible is more up-to-date than the morning newspapers.”

George Bernard Shaw

“The New Testament is the very best book that ever was or ever will be known to the world.”

Charles Dickens

“Whatever merit is in anything I have written is due simply to the fact that when I was a child my mother daily read me a part of the Bible and daily made me learn a part of it by heart.”

John Ruskin

“Here is a book worth more than all others ever printed.”

Patrick Henry

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.”

Psalms 119:105

“The Bible is the best book in the world.”

John Adams

“There is but one book!”

Sir Walter Scott

“Peruse the books of philosophers with all their pomp of diction; how meager, how contemptible when compared with the Scriptures. The majesty of the Scriptures strikes me with admiration.”

Rousseau

“The English Bible is a book which, if everything else in our language should perish, would alone suffice to show the whole extent of beauty and power.”

Macculay

“To the Bible men will return, because they cannot do without it.”

Matthew Arnold

“The existence of the Bible as a book for the people is the greatest benefit which the human race has ever experienced.”

Immanuel Kant
