

Hidden in Plain Sight

Deuteronomy 28:1-10

Many times in my life, I've heard the expression, "Can't see the forest for the trees." It describes how blind we can be to things that are right in front of us. It tells us that sometimes the things we are searching for most intently are right there, hidden in plain sight.

This is especially true with our blessings! God gives us health, family, church, relationships and children. When our eyes are opened and we see the good things in our lives, we are amazed by the goodness of God.

But Satan wants us to be blinded to the good and to see only the negatives of life. We have blessings available that we may never enjoy, and we can live in misery while happiness and contentment are well within our reach. That's why we must stay close to God in the worst and most painful moments of life. His promises and our fervent prayers are the only remedy we have for Satan's lies. Without them, we will be blinded to the good things we have been given, and soon be overwhelmed with the bad.
