

How to Know When You're Getting Old

How Do You Know When You're Getting Old?

- Everything hurts, and what doesn't hurt doesn't work.
- The gleam in your eye is from the sun hitting your bifocals.
- It feels like the 'morning after' but you haven't been anywhere the night before.
- Your little black book contains only names starting with Dr.
- You get winded playing chess.
- A dripping tap causes an uncontrollable bladder urge.
- You know all the answers, but nobody asks you the questions.
- You look forward to a dull evening.
- You burn the midnight oil after 9pm.
- Your back goes out more often than you do.
- Your pacemaker makes the garage door go up when you watch a pretty girl pass by.
- The little grey-haired old lady you help across the street is . . . your wife.
- You have too much room in the house, but not enough in the medicine cabinet.
- You sink your teeth into a steak, and they stay there.
