

Job vs. Ministry

If you do it because no one else will, it's a job.

If you are doing it to serve the Lord, it's a ministry.

If you do it just to get by, it's a job.

If you do it to the best of your ability, it's a ministry.

If you quit because someone criticized you, it was a job.

If you keep serving, it's a ministry.

If you quit because no one praised you, it was a job.

If you do it because you think it needs to be done, it's a ministry.

It is hard to get excited about a job.

It's almost impossible not to get excited about a ministry.

Average churches are filled with many people, doing many jobs.

Great churches are filled with people who are involved in ministry.

If your concern is just success, it's a job.

If your concern is faithfulness, it's a ministry.

People may say, "Well done," when you do your job.

The Lord will say, "Well done," when you complete your ministry.
