

Map: Paul's Journey to Caesarea

Acts 23:1-35

The 470 Roman troops accompanied Paul to Antipatris (some 38 miles from Jerusalem), thus protecting him through the hilly country where an ambush or further assassination plot could be more easily carried out. Once the group reach the plains, 400 returned to Jerusalem and the remaining 70 accompanied Paul the remaining 26 miles to Caesarea.