

Resolutions for the New Year

- If not a Christian, I am resolved to enter the Kingdom, leaving this path of sin.
- I resolve to follow the Word of God and the God of the Word.
- I resolve to read and study the Bible every day.
- I resolve to have a deeper and more faithful prayer life.
- I resolve to pray daily for my home congregation.
- I resolve to be a better husband to my wife.
- I resolve to be a better wife to my husband.
- I resolve to be a better parent to my children.
- I resolve to be a better grandparent to my grandchildren.
- I resolve to be a more faithful Christian and servant of God and Christ.
- I resolve to be more faithful in my attendance at the services of the Church.
- I resolve to use my voice in song unto my God.
- I resolve to be friendly and outgoing towards visitors at our services.
- I resolve to try and bring other people to our worship services.
- I resolve to take an active part in God’s work.
- I resolve to be the best Word Bible School Teacher that I can be.
- I resolve to be a better supporter of good works.
- I resolve to be a better supporter of mission work.
- I resolve to be a better influence for Christ as I live before others.
- I resolve to speak the truth at all times.
- I resolve to put away unwholesome and questionable habits.
- I resolve to be the best and most honest employee that I can be.
- I resolve be attentive to the needs of others.
- I resolve to be available for God’s service.
- I resolve to be knowledgeable about how to Serve God.
- I resolve to be willing to do whatever the Elders and Deacons call upon me to do.
- I resolve to at least try to do what my Elders & Deacons ask me to do.
- I resolve to help build up the body of Christ in my home community.

- I resolve to put Christ first in my life.
- I resolve for God to have the glory from all that I endeavor to do.
- I resolve to teach others about Christ and His plan for their salvation.
- I resolve to show kindness to everyone . . . everywhere . . . All the time.
- I resolve to believe truth . . . obey truth . . . live truth . . . And teach truth.
- I resolve to put away all things in my life that are not pleasing to God.
- I resolve to encourage my brothers and sisters in Christ to do their best.
- I resolve to allow God to use me in His service as He pleases.
- I resolve sing and worship my God with all my heart.
- I resolve to be a Christian that God can count on . . . Everyday and every night.
- To the best of my ability, I resolve to grow spiritually.
- I resolve to be a good Christian example to all the children I am around.
- I resolve to render only my best for the master.
- I resolve to uphold truth and to renounce error.
- I resolve let Christ live in me and work through me.
- I resolve to give of my means in proportion to what God has given me.
- I resolve to be a Christian light wherever I go.
- I resolve to live in full submission to the will of God.
- I resolve to give God my very best . . . Everyday and every where.
- I resolve to have the attitude of Isaiah when he said in Isaiah 6:8 – “Here am I, send me.”
- I resolve to have the attitude of Samuel in 1 Samuel 3:9 – “Speak, Lord, for your servant hears.”
- I resolve to be prepared should this be the year of my passing . . . Or the year of our blessed Lord’s return.