

Some “Dos” of Bible Study

- DO remember that the Bible is God’s Word
- DO approach the Bible with reverence and respect
- DO pray for wisdom and understanding in your study
- DO study rather than just read or browse through the Bible
- DO study the Bible regularly
- DO study the Bible all the way through
- DO set aside a place and regular time conducive for Bible Study
- DO make notes and markings in your Bible
- DO use a reliable translation of the Bible
- DO use useful aids (concordance, commentary, dictionary, etc., in your study
- DO remember that each verse has only one correct interpretation
- DO remember that a correct interpretation may have several applications

