

Organization of Temple Personnel

LEVITES:

The Levites were given new responsibilities now that the Tabernacle no longer needed to be moved. 1 Chronicles 23:28-32

PRIESTS

There was a total of 24 men, Each was scheduled to serve in the Temple, one per day.

SINGERS:

The 4,000 singers were supervised by Asaph, Herman, and Jeduthan and their sons. These three groups also taught their relatives the songs of the Lord so that there was a total of 288 musicians divided into 24 groups of 12 each.

ALTHOUGH, DAVID DID NOT BUILD THE TEMPLE, HE ESTABLISHED A DETAILED STRUCTURE FOR RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES THAT WAS OBSERVED THROUGH THE TIME OF CHRIST

• 1 Chronicles 23-24

GATEKEEPERS:

4,000 gatekeepers supervised by the families of Korah and Merari. They guarded the four gates of the Temple. They were assigned by drawing lots. Each day there were six gatekeepers at the east gate, four at the north, four at the south gate, and two at the storehouse, and four at the road on the west and two at the west gate.

TREASURERS:

The Gershonites were in charge of the treasures and all the things given by the kings and commanders of the army, as well as plunder taken in battle

OFFICIALS AND JUDGES:

The Izharites were assigned responsibilities away from the Temple and Jerusalem. They supervised the works of the Lord and the service of the king in the surrounding territories.
